Vegetable YUM Organic Farm Cipanas

For over 10 years, YUM Organic Farm has been more than just a farm, it's been the beating heart of Cipanas community. They bring together people of all ages, offering hands-on learning experiences in health, nutrition and sustainable farming. From university internship to elderly engagement programs, cooking classes to children's education, YUM creates meaningful connections that nourish both body and mind.

Vegetable Quality Farm Cipanas

Founded by Ardisa in response to growing health consciousness in Indonesia, Quality Farm has evolved into a leading organic agriculture enterprise. Starting with kale cultivation on a modest plot, they now manage 10,000 m² of land and coordinate with 11 farmer groups to grow over 100 varieties of horticultural produce.

Cage-free egg PT Inti Prima Satwa Sejahtera Sukabumi

In the quiet hills of Sukabumi, cage-free chickens are raised with care by PT Inti Prima Satwa Sejahtera — the farm behind the eggs we serve. Here, soft slatted floors protect the feet, and fresh air flows freely. Nutritious feed, such as papaya leaves and ginger, is grown right on-site. Machines handle the heavy lifting, allowing people to focus on gentle care. Veterinarians visit regularly to ensure the chickens stay healthy.
