Wineries

Exclusively featuring Indian wines, we challenge the perception of Indian wine as solely affordable but lacking in quality. Our goal is to introduce guests to the idea of high-quality Indian wine and promote informal wine pairing with food. This experience aims to convey the message of 'Oneness in Diversity' while fostering appreciation for Indian wine producers through the stories behind their efforts in crafting high-quality wines in India.

FRATELLI

Fratelli Winery is a collaborative vision between the Secci brothers from Italy and the Sekhri and Mohite-Patil brothers from India. Named after the Italian word for 'brothers,' Fratelli blends Indian terroir with Italian craft to produce award-winning varietals. Guided by master winemaker Piero Masi, the estate has crafted an eclectic range of wines since 2007, forging bonds with every glass, turning friends into family.

At Grover Zampa Vineyards, they meticulously capture grape essence, respecting terroir and climate for exceptional wines. Their commitment to quality involves adapting international techniques to India, expressing unique terroir through careful grape selection. Embracing 'Less is more,' They limit yields for complex aromas. Hand-harvested grapes and meticulous sorting ensure excellence from vineyards to winery, reflecting their dedication to quality in every bottle.

Introduced to wine during his Stanford years, Rajeev Samant's journey from Oracle Winery in Napa Valley to India's wine forefront began in 1994 in Nashik. Inspired by a Californian winery visit, he founded Sula Vineyards in 1996. Named after his mother, Sulabha, Sula embodies Indian pride. Rajeev prioritizes sustainability, making Sula one of the world's most sustainable wine businesses. His advocacy extends to representing India's wine industry to national and state governments, solidifying his role as a steward of the land.

In the early 1970s, KRSMA's winemaking legacy began with Krishna Prasad's first taste of wine, a gift from a local bishop. Inspired, Krishna and wife Uma, fueled by a passion for world-class Indian wine, traveled all over India, seeking the ideal terroir. In 2008, they discovered a hilly paradise near Hampi, where KRSMA was born. With rolling hills and porous soil, the south of India became the perfect canvas for their pioneering spirit and winemaking passion, immortalized in the spectacular sunset over the hills.
